

.trace the inside of your body in space while tripping yourself.

.be inside a three-dimensional connect-the-dots drawing.

.slip in the spaces between rain while getting bigger.

.talk, shout, or sing while you float.

.force yourself underneath the floating story.

.shake until you crash.

.walls are the inside of your skin and surrounding space contracts and expands.

.organize which part of your ever-changing body gets attached to balloons.

.pop the balloons.

.be in a bubble you try to pop without using your hands.

.move away from a minotaur in a labyrinth.

.obstruct her path.

.interrupt encounters of those avoiding the center.

.torso filled with air then water then rocks.

.listen to the floor and let it tell you what to do.

.work your way into tiny spaces far from each other.

.always sink.

.care for the moment before she hits the ground.